

English

- Main Text—The Arrival
- Letters in Role
- Narrative writing
- Grammar revision with a focus on application to writing.
- Subjunctive voice

- Reading—authors use of language for effect and performance.

- Oracy—to write and perform a TV advert to be filmed and distributed to classes.
- Oracy—to learn by heart parts of a script and songs.

Science

- Animals including humans
- Circulatory system and the heart.
- Effect of drugs and alcohol on the body.
- Components of blood.
- Keeping healthy.
- Key scientist: William Harvey

Geography

- Based around geography day on 12th/13th July (whole-school project)

R.E.

- The importance of Moses to Christians and Jews.
- Different denominations of Christianity

How can I make sure I am ready for the next stage of my learning?

Personal, Social and Health Education

- Transition to High School.
- New beginnings, immigration and change (taught through Emotional Literacy)
- Budgeting and Debt
- Stocks and Shares
- Financial planning
- Relationships and sex education
- Refugee Week (20th June)

P.E.

- Athletics
- Dance

Art and Design Technology

- Art: Pencil sketch work based around The Arrival
- Logo/business design (graphic design)
- 1 point and 2 point perspective.

Maths

- Negative Numbers
- Ratio
- Statistics including averages (mean)
- Financial education based (see PSHE)

French

- Vocabulary to describe towns
- Giving and receiving directions

Computing

- Programming
- Digital citizenship and e-safety
- Word processing and data handling using Google Docs and Sheets.
- Combining text, media and audio to fulfil an advertising brief.